

JEFF LADOUCEUR
8 April - 27 May 2005
opening Thursday 7 April 2005

Jeff Ladouceur lives in Vancouver, but most of the time in a strange country: the world of his drawings. A populated place of cloudy friends, mounds of babies and elephants, characters with body parts in shape of spaghetti and bold heads. A walk in a hybrid, absurd and comic landscape like our memories of comic strip, but with the precision and the patience of the famous engravers of the 16th century.
